

English

国際交流同好会

Hello! We are the International Communication Club! We have a club meeting once or twice a month, and enjoy various activities such as talking in English, watching English videos, playing English games, and so on. Our ALTs teach us about different cultures around the world and their stories are always interesting! We also have small parties on holidays such as Halloween or Christmas. We are looking forward to seeing you and enjoying those activities together!

